

Perennials for a Butterfly Garden

Your Butterfly Garden should offer plenty of sun and protection from strong winds. Select plants that flower in spring, summer, and fall for a continual nectar supply.

Achillea - Yarrow

Alcea - Hollyhock*

Arabis - Rock Cress

Armeria - Sea Pink

Aruncus dioicus - Goatsbeard

Asclepias tuberosa - Butterfly Weed

Aster - Aster

Aubrieta deltoidea - Purple Rock
Cress

Aurinia saxatilis - Basket-of-Gold

Centranthus ruber - Jupiter's Beard

Chrysanthemum x superbum -
Shasta Daisy*

Coreopsis spp - Tickseed

Dianthus allwoodii - Alwood's Pink

Echinacea purpurea - Purple Cone
Flower

Echinops spp - Globe Thistle*

Erigeron speciosa - Fleabane

Eryngium - Sea Holly

Eupatorium coelestinum - Hardy
Ageratum

Gaillardia spp - Blanket Flower

Hemerocallis - Daylily

Iberis sempervirens - Candytuft

Lavendula angustifolia - English
Lavender

Liatris spicata - Gay Feather

Lilium - Lily

Lupins - Lupine*

Lythrum salicaria - Loosestrife

Malva alcea - Mallow

Monarda didyma -Bee Balm

Nepeta - Catmint

Phlox maculata - Wild Sweet William

Phlox paniculata - Garden Phlox

Primula - Primrose

Rudbeckia spp - Black-eyed Susan

Sedum - Stonecrop

Stachys byzantina - Lamb's Ear

Verbena canadensis - Vervain

Also serves as caterpillar host plant.